Item 5 on the agenda was the Re-Hearing of the Application for Accidental Disability Retirement for Kori Miklos. Mr. Altorre addressed the Board on behalf of Ms. Miklos and requested a continuance for two months. He informed the Board that at this time, they are working on getting information from Ms. Miklo's doctor. Lt. Westberg approved the request for continuance of two months. Seconded by Mr. Duffner. Motion passed unanimously.

Item 4 on the agenda was the discussion of the letter received from Maurice Othic. Mr. McEvoy discussed with the Board information he received regarding the accidental disability based on a mental condition. He explained the 1987 Wills case and the Stress Disability Legal Guidelines (PSPRS Only) dated March 2017 from PSPRS that allows PSPRS local boards to use the “usual, ordinary and expected” legal standard in the Sloss case when determining mental or stress disability pension eligibility. He informed the Board of the Pascarella case, which involved a stress accidental disability pension application. He explained that this case was initially denied and at the rehearing, there was medical evidence brought to the Mesa PSPRS local board that supported the claim. The Court of Appeals held that the local board was obligated to have its doctor evaluate the applicant, although it is unclear whether the doctor or the local board is the party to determine eligibility under the Sloss legal standard. Mr. McEvoy also informed the Board of about the France case in which the Court of Appeals discussed the Sloss legal standard. He explained that the Court of Appeals attempted to distinguish between the event and the stress from the event, and held that the stress from the event, if unusual, extraordinary or unexpected, should be what is considered in determining whether to approve a stress disability pension application, even if the event(s) that triggered the stress was (were) usual, ordinary or expected.” By so doing, the court changed the legal standard from objective to subjective, even though language in the France decision purports to support an objective standard – “hypothetical ‘reasonable person’ working alongside claimant.” Mr. McEvoy informed the Board that, in light of the Pascarella and France decisions, the Board should refer Mr. Othic back to Dr. Johnson to clarify his condition under the accidental (as opposed to ordinary) disability standards and under the “stress from the event” standard in the France case. Lt. Westberg expressed with the Board that there is no further clarity with this new information. Mr. Duffner asked who brought this agenda item. Ms. Jobst explained that it was on the agenda due to the letter Mr. Othic wrote. Mr. McEvoy suggested the Board send for an IME based on the information from the Pascarella and Frances cases. Lt. Westberg moved to refer the matter for consideration to Dr. Johnson under the accidental (as opposed to ordinary) disability standards and under the “stress from the event” standard in the France case. Mr. Duffner seconded the motion. Motion passed unanimously.
